After almost 11 years at St Patrick's and 10 years at St Thomas', I wish to thank everyone for making me feel so welcome, despite my limitations. As Parish Priest, I was honoured to work with all of you – my parishioners – and every day working in Craigneuk and Wishaw was a privilege.

I owe a debt of gratitude to all the volunteers who covered various areas of parish work. These two communities are exemplary models of Christian life, spreading the good message to others who do not yet know Jesus Christ. From the bottom of my heart, I thank all of you, and each one of you, for your prayers, kindness, words of support and practical material support, of both the parish and myself. If I have hurt anyone through my words or actions, I am truly sorry. Please keep me in your prayers, and I will pray for each one of you.

May St John Paul II, whose relics were installed in St Patrick's a few years ago, look after all of Wishaw and its people. "Do not be afraid. Open wide the doors to Christ." Fr Krzysztof Garwolinski

Fr Krzysztof's last Mass in St Patrick's will be celebrated on Thursday, and in St Thomas' on Friday at 10.00 am. The Primary School children will join us for Mass in St Thomas' on Friday 7 June at 10 am.

CHANGE TO MASS TIMES IN ST THOMAS AND ST IGNATIUS: Due to the change of priests in these parishes the Sunday Mass schedule will change from the weekend of 7/8 June.
